SPORT SWIMMERS AFTER MORE RECORDS TOMORROW

Tomorrow morning the speediest swimmers in the Territory will fight it out for the premier honors of 1912, in the second annual swimming championships of the Hawaiian Amateur Athletic Association, the island branch of the A. A. U. The rules and regulations of the parent organization hold good, and everything will be shipshape and according to Hoyle, so that if there are any records broken there will be no question about distances any time.

Last year when Duke Kahanamoku broke the world's record for the 100 yards, in the first championships held, August 12, the records committee of the A. A. U. refused to accept the time until Duke had "shown them." He did show them in a very convincing manner, and the only reason that he will not defend his titles tomorrow is because he is soon to show the athletes of the world what Hawaii can produce in the way of water speeders. He is after bigger honors at Stockholm than the ones he captured here, but he will always look on his performance last year as the real start of his success.

But there are other crack swimmers besides Duke, and this year's trials will be of special interest in bringing out some new material. There are those who think that in Lawrence Cunha the Heleian have a man who will equal or better Kahanamoku's time for the 50 yards. The Hui Nalu have a large entry and the other clubs are well represented.

Following are the Hawaiian A. A. U. records, not standing:

880-yard swim—V. Genoves.	Time, 13:36 4-5.
50-yard swim—Duke Kahanamoku.	Time, 24 1-5.
One mile swim—V. Genoves.	Time, 29:28 3-5.
Fancy diving—George Preeth.	100-yard swim—Duke Kahanamoku.
440-yard swim—V. Genoves.	Time, 55 32-5.
Plunge for distance—R. K. Fuller.	220-yard swim—Duke Kahanamoku.
440-yard swim—V. Genoves.	Time, 2:42 2-5.
Relay swimming race—Hui Nalu.	Relay swimming race—Hui Nalu.
Time, 2:56 2-5.	Time, 2:56 2-5.

WAILUKU BOWLERS
ARE ON THE JOB

Special Bulletin Correspondence:

WAILUKU, Maui, June 8.—The members of the Wailuku Gymnasium are now bowling in a tournament of thirty games for each player to be completed in one month's time. Each candidate is only allowed to bowl three games in one night. The one who averages the highest points in the thirty games will be declared the winner and will be entitled to a silver cup to be put up by the Wailuku Sugar Company. Many have joined in this tournament and great interest prevails. So far many have bowled over half the games allotted for each, some of them averaging over 160 points with the star bowlers to be heard from yet.
